

BYLAWS OF THE PRAIRIE FIELDS

HOMES ASSOCIATION

AS AMENDED SEPTEMBER 24, 2022

ARTICLE I- MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Any person who has legal title of record to any lot or tract of land within the limits of the district as it now exists or may hereafter exist, as the term "district is defined in the PRAIRIE FIELDS HOMES ASSOCIATION Declaration, shall be a member in this Association. This instrument is filed of record under document number 457211 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Johnson County, at Olathe, Kansas.

Section 2. In case the legal title to any lot or tract of land in the District is held in any form of joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the owners thereof shall be eligible to membership but shall jointly have the right to cast only one vote at any election or on any question.

Section 3. In case the legal title to any lot or tract of land in the district is held by one or more minors, then their natural or legal guardian or guardians shall be eligible to membership, or if there be more than one such guardian they shall jointly have the right to cast only one vote for any candidate at any election or on any question, or such guardians may, if they prefer, designate in writing one of them as member in their stead.

Section 4. In case the legal title to any lot or tract of land in the district is held by a corporation, then the Board of Directors of such corporation, or its president, or its vice president may designate in writing one of its officers, members or employees as its member representative, who shall thereupon become eligible to membership.

Section 5. Only owners of one or more tracts of land in this District, or their duly accredited representatives as herein provided, shall be eligible to membership in this association. No member shall have the right to more than one vote for any candidate at any election, or on any question, although the owner may own more than one lot or tract of land.

Section 6. Membership in this association may continue only during the ownership of any lot or tract of land in the District by the member or representative as herein provided.

Section 7. No fees or charges shall be made for the privilege of membership beyond the charge or assessment as set forth in the Agreement which now affect the land in the District, which Agreement is dated July 28, 1953 and is recorded in Book 59 of Miscellaneous at page 603 in the office of the Register of Deeds for Johnson County at Olathe, Kansas, and amendments thereto.

Directors shall be elected annually by the members of the Association at an Association meeting to serve for a period of three years from the regular Association meeting when the election occurs or should have occurred, and until a successor shall be duly elected and qualified. Terms shall be staggered so that three directors shall be elected at each Annual meeting.

Section 5. In case of vacancy in the office of a director occurring between annual elections, the remaining directors at a regular or a special meeting shall elect another eligible member to fill the vacancy until the next Annual meeting at which time a successor shall be duly elected and qualified for the unexpired term.

Section 6. The Board of Directors shall conduct, manage and control the property affairs and business of the Association, and shall make all necessary rules and regulations for the guidance of officers and management of the affairs and business of the Association, not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Kansas or of the United States. They shall cause to be kept a complete record of all their acts and proceedings, and of the proceedings of the members. At each annual meeting, they shall present a complete detailed statement showing the assets, liabilities and general condition of the Association. They shall also cause to be kept a complete record of all the finances of the Association showing all receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities.

They shall employ and discharge at will, all agents, servants and employees of the Association, prescribe their duties, fix their compensation, fix the compensation, if any, of officers, and in their discretion, may require of them a bond or other security for faithful performance of their duties and fidelity. They shall determine who shall sign and countersign all checks, drafts, and other papers and documents, except as otherwise provided for herein. They shall do and perform any other duties that maybe prescribed for them by the members of this association at any regular or special meeting.

ARTICLE III - OFFICERS & THEIR DUTIES

Section 1 (a). The officers of this Association shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Executive secretary, who shall be elected by and hold office at the will of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also, from time to time, name other or assistant officers who shall hold office at the will of the Board of Directors.

(b). The President and the Vice President shall at all times be directors, It is not required that either the Secretary, Treasurer or the Executive Secretary shall be a director or a member of the Association. The office of the Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person.

(c). The Board of Directors may appoint or remove any officer or employee at pleasure, and any vacancy caused by removal, resignation, death, cessation of membership in the Association for any cause whatever, may be filled by the Board of Directors as it may deem advantageous.

Section 2. The President shall preside over all meetings of the members and directors, shall sign all instruments of writing to be executed by the corporation, and as may be directed by the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be conferred by the Board of Directors, but the President's authority shall be subject to the control and direction of the Board of Directors at all times.

Section 3. The duties of the Vice President shall be to do and perform all the duties of the President in the absence or inability of the President.

Section 4. The duties of the Secretary and/or Executive Secretary shall be to keep a permanent and complete record of all proceedings of each meeting of the Board of Directors and of the Association members, and to keep the officers informed of all such proceedings whenever called upon; to call special meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Association members whenever requested by the President or the Vice President or a majority of the Board of Directors; to keep a list of all members of the Association and their addresses; and to do and perform all other duties that usually and properly pertain to the office of Secretary. In the case of the failure, absence, inability or refusal of the Secretary to perform his or her duties, the President may appoint someone to act until the next meeting of the Board of Directors, and in such event the Secretary shall turn over to the successor in office all papers, records, books and other property belonging to the Association.

Section 5. The duties of the Treasurer shall be to receive and deposit in such banks or bank as the Board of Directors may from time to time direct, all moneys belonging to the Association; to keep a true and detailed account of all moneys received and paid out; to make a financial report in writing at each annual meeting of the Association members, and at any special meeting of the Association members whenever he may be requested to do so, and to make such a report at any meeting of the Board of Directors whenever requested; to turn over to his successor in office, all moneys, records, papers and other property then on hand belonging to the Association; and to do and perform all other duties that usually and properly pertain to the office of Treasurer.

Section 6. The Directors shall not receive any compensation for their services.

ARTICLE IV - ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

Section 1. The regular Annual meeting of the members of this Association herein called the "Association meeting" shall be held on the second Monday of September of each year, and at such place as may be fixed by the Board of Directors and set out in the notice of the meeting, provided however, that the Board shall have the right to fix any other time, either on or after the second Monday of September of each year by appropriate order entered on the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors of such time and place of meeting as fixed.

Special meetings of the members of the Association herein called "Association meeting" may be held at any time on call of the Secretary, or the President or the Vice President or by 10 percent of members.

Section 2. The members of the Association shall be notified by the Secretary or Executive Secretary, the President or the Vice President by a printed or written notice mailed to the last known address of the members at least ten days before the date of the regular meeting, stating the time and place of the meeting. Special meetings may be called in like manner after five days notice, but any such notice shall designate the purpose of the meeting. In all such cases the mailing of the notice shall be considered as the notice required to be given; and notices need only be given to members appearing as such on the books of the Association.

Any notice to members given by the Association under any provisions of these Bylaws may be given by a form of electronic transmission (electronic mail or facsimile) consented to by the member to whom the notice is given. Any such consent shall be revocable by the member upon written notice with the Association. Any such consent shall be deemed revoked if: (1) the Association is unable to deliver by electronic transmission two consecutive notices given by the Association in accordance with the consent, and (2) such inability becomes known to the Association's secretary or property manager.

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the statutes of Kansas, or of the Articles of Incorporation or of these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the members, directors or members of a committee of directors need be specified in any written waiver of notice unless so required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

Section 3. At any regular or special Association meeting, ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A majority vote of those present shall be necessary to elect a director or transact any other business.

If the meeting be not held at the time specified because of the lack of quorum or other cause, the meeting may be adjourned from day to day until a day certain.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such times and place as the Board of Directors may designate. At least five days notice of the regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given to all members.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time on call of the Secretary, or the President, or the vice President, by written notice mailed to the last known address of the Directors at least five days before the date of the meeting, stating the time, place and purpose of the meeting. The mailing of such notice shall be considered as the notice required to be given. Or a like written notice may be served by any one personally upon the directors at least one day before such meeting.

Directors may attend Directors meetings by electronic method such as video conferencing or telephone conferencing as long as all directors can hear each other at all times.

ARTICLE V- VOTING

Section 1. At all Association meetings each member shall have the right to vote in person or by proxy, but all proxies shall be in writing and shall be filed with the Secretary before the meeting. Each member shall have but one vote. All votes shall be by ballot unless waived by unanimous consent.

Section 2. No Director may vote by proxy at any Directors' meeting. No Director shall be permitted to vote at any Directors' meeting unless he is present at such meeting.

ARTICLE VI - AMENDMENTS

These bylaws may be altered, amended, added to or repealed at any Association meeting by a two-thirds vote of those present, if there be a quorum.

The above Bylaws were adopted at the meeting of the members on September 24, 2022.

The above and foregoing Bylaws are hereby signed by James Bicknell, Secretary of the Board;
Craig Miller, President of the Board; Tyler Agniel, Treasurer of the Board and all other Board Members present this 24th Day September, 2022.
